FELLOWSHIPS

Georgia Tech awards a large number of individual fellowships. They vary in value from a few hundred dollars to $30,000 per year or more. Most of them are awarded by schools, not by the Office of Graduate Studies or the Office of Financial Aid. Even for programs where several schools are eligible, nominations come from within the programs, not directly from individual students.

The only Institute-level fellowship programs (http://www.finaid.gatech.edu/fellowships) are President’s Fellowships ($5,500 per year) and Institute Fellowships ($11,000 per year). These supplement assistantships or other fellowships. Programs nominate incoming students for these programs, and the Office of Graduate Studies administers the programs.
